Kevin Graham and Lookout Management were an absolute pleasure to work with on our parent, faculty, and student surveys. Kevin was incredibly responsive, always available to take our calls, prepared to offer thoughtful insights, and never lost patience with us as we struggled to find the precise ways to elicit the best information from our school community. He offered a perfect blend of professional expertise, personal encouragement, and rich insight to help us achieve truly useful perspectives on every facet of our school's operation, information that will inform our judgment and decision making for years to come. I recommend him enthusiastically and would welcome a personal call if you want to speak further." Dr. Bruce L. Dennis, Head of School, The Packer Collegiate Institute, Brooklyn, NY (Pre-K to 12, 1030 students)
